Jasper County Treatment Court

Serving individuals to break the cycle of substance abuse for a healthier community.

What is Treatment Court?

We are a collaboration of the criminal justice system and area treatment providers aiming to provide structure and support to participants so they can maintain stable and substance free lives

How do we help?

Jasper County Treatment Court uses evidence-based assessments to identify justice-involved individuals with substance use or mental health disorders providing them access to treatment through various modalities and an opportunity to have their charge(s) dismissed with successful completion of the 18-month program.

Where do you see yourself in 18 months?
We want to help get you
there!

Why Are We Here?

Our goal is to provide:

- Court ordered alternative to incarceration
- Educate about the risks of substance/alcohol abuse
- Promote responsible decision making
- Encourage change and growth
- Contribute to the safety of our community

In hopes of:

- Improving treatment outcomes
- Increasing health/safety
- Reducing the risks for re-offending
- Providing an alternative to incarceration
- Engage the community in the mission of the drug courts

What's My Role?

As a participant in Treatment Court, you will attend random drug screenings, engage with your case manager, participate in treatment, and attend court dates.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Pending felony offense (some felony offenses may exclude you from the program)
- Reside in Jasper County
- 18 years or older
- Admit to having a substance use problem
- Willingness to engage in treatment
